

Essentials Class,

I am excited to enter into the next leg of the journey with you. I wanted to be further ahead of this than I am, but getting sick last week got me off schedule. I will send you some verses that I think we should look at together, but wanted to have you read a short article first.

Attached is a pdf about "Ecumenical Creeds" (creeds that a large portion of Christianity use). Take a look at this, how the words and ideas change, and I will get some passages out to you asap.

Thanks!

PJ
